

Instant Cashback for the Irix 150mm f/2.8 Macro 1:1 lens!

Spring is in full swing – meaning many things to shoot in macro. An afternoon at home or a walk in the park or forest can be a great opportunity to take some great macro shots. The Irix 150mm f/2.8 Macro 1:1 is equipped with a wide and comfortable focusing ring with a 270 degree rotation angle that allows you to smoothly, precisely, and quickly focus, and the 11 rounded aperture blades will guarantee you full-detail photos with beautiful bokeh.

The Irix 150mm f/2.8 Macro 1:1 is known for its excellent seals that enable safe operation without the risk of damaging the lens – in all conditions. This is especially important for the outdoors in the morning, when insects bask in the morning sun, and the lens can be exposed to high humidity, water drops, and rain.
