

Macro Season with Irix begins!

[ Irix ]

Macrophotography season has begun! Irix brand wants to make it easier to take those perfect macro photos, offering Irix 150mm f2.8 Macro 1:1 with a special discount. Thanks to this sale, you can buy the perfect macro lens for €40 less!

You have probably dreamed for a long time about taking those stunning pictures of nature around you. Especially those beautiful flowers waking up after winter in your backyard. Our Irix 150mm f/2.8 Macro 1:1 has been praised by many reviewers around the world, and now it can help you. A 1:1 scale makes sure that your photographed object is being transferred in 1 to 1 scale on the camera sensor. Long focal length, f/2.8, and minimum focusing distance of 34mm offer stunning images. All users agreed that our lens offers amazing sharpness and micro contrasts, offering a beautiful three-dimensional image.

Smart features will help you get those shots even more comfortably. Irix 150mm f/2.8 Macro 1:1 just like other Irix photo lenses provides EXIF information as well as focus confirmation. Another useful feature is a focus lock that lets you lock it, so you don't have to worry about accidentally moving rings. Manual focusing has never been easier! Don't believe us? Buy the lens for a discounted price and check it out for yourself.

While shooting in spring, the weather can change upon you in an instant. With Irix 150mm f/2.8mm Macro 1:1, you won't have to worry! Our lens is weatherproofed, thanks to its sealing and anti-skid ring, which will help your focusing. Because the lens is built from magnesium alloy, it will outlast many other lenses. When you decide to purchase this product, you will receive a product ready to shoot straight out of the box. Hardshell case, sunshade, and lens support ring come as a standard part of the package. Rain or shine, the Irix lens will be your partner, no matter what the weather throws at you.

Irix 150mm f/2.8 Macro 1:1 is available with Canon, Nikon, and Pentax mounts and you can purchase it starting today until May 9th for a special price, for just €555,00!
